

EU Authorized Representative (EC REP) Information

English translation of the provided representative information sheet

1. For better compliance protection, it is recommended to affix the information in all three places. At present, most customers place it on the product packaging.
2. The label below may be typeset according to your own layout, but please ensure that your buyer does not contact our EU authorized representative directly. We are not responsible for communication with your buyer.
3. Any unauthorized use will be subject to legal liability.
